

Welcome to the Bunny Bulletin

The Bunny Bulletin is the Bunny Village monthly magazine. It was founded in September 1998 and is distributed free of charge to every household and business in the Parish of Bunny.

It is produced by a team of volunteers and is funded by Bunny Parish Council and advertising.

The Editorial Committee is conscious that the population of Bunny is constantly changing and is aware that the sense of community that many of us value is in danger of being lost. By promoting village activities and events, raising issues that affect the life of the village, giving a voice to Bunny residents and supporting local businesses and trades-people, we hope to foster a sense of belonging in those who live in our village.

EDITORIAL FOR DECEMBER 2009

First of all, cast your eyes to the left. Our new advertiser, Mascari Kitchens is based in Ruddington, and with Bunny connections. Their showroom is certainly worth a visit if you are thinking of treating yourself to a kitchen makeover.

For those of you who receive the Bulletin by post, the late delivery of the magazine last month was a result of the postal strike and not any deficiency on our part.

That out of the way, let me tell you that Tony the Bedman is developing his talents as a radio DJ at QMC and is appealing for volunteer visitors and potential DJs to contact him (p 38).

Next, get out your diary and, as you work your way through the Bulletin, make a note of what is going on locally in December. There are Concerts, Christmas Fairs, a Christmas Tree Festival, our Village Supper at the Rancliffe, Christingle, Carol Services, and Christmas Tree Lighting plus mulled wine and mince pies, and all within the Bunny, Ruddington, Keyworth triangle (and no parking problems!).

You will also see that, on January 23rd, there is a Wine Workshop in the Church (page 19). This is the next fund-raising event by the Church and, because of its nature, the numbers are limited. Tickets are not on sale until November 27th (at the Open Morning in the Church, when there are other things going on as well - see page 35 - so worth dropping in).

Finally, Reverend Margaret has an excellent Christmas Cake recipe for you on page 18. She is determined that you have a jolly time. M & S eat your heart out!

Best wishes to you all for a happy and peaceful Christmas.
